

Dynamics of Giving

Have you ever pondered the true dynamics of giving? Have you ever wondered whether it is truly better to give than receive? Will giving miraculously cause some life-changing experience? Unlike a fact, such as the world is round, or that 2 plus 2 equals 4, the actual act of giving, while there is no logical or scientific explanation as to the results, it seems to cause the universe to move in to play or maybe the spiritual world to sit up and take notice.

Many great individuals, while they may not be able to fully explain the impact of giving, they recognize and speak of the force that springs forth when giving.

For it is in giving that we receive

St. Francis of Assisi

Give and it shall be given unto you; a good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over... [Luke 6:38]

If you continually give, you will continually have Anonymous

No one has ever become poor by giving
Anne Frank

Giving is true having
Charles Spurgeon

The one saying that springs forth mightily in my mind, when it comes to giving, is found in Proverbs: A bit of fragrance always clings to the hand that gives the roses.

To all that have given to help make “Cooking Up Justice” possible, whether of your time, donating a recipe, paying for an ad or purchasing the cookbook, may you too experience the dynamics that come from giving to such a worthy cause as MALS and have the fragrance of the roses on your hands.

Thank you for giving and bon appetite.

Kathy May, Chair
Cooking Up Justice

For a copy of “Cooking Up Justice”, please go to www.malsi.org/Cookbook.php or e-mail karenbyars@alphareporting.com.